

Chinese Bible School

MONTHLY REPORT—May, 2017

As a part of the work of the Chinese Bible School, the Lord has blessed me with the opportunity for me to go on a mission trip to California, Malaysia, mainland China, and Taiwan to speak on behalf of the school and the Lord’s church and inform the brethren of this work. On May 21, I spoke at the Airport Church of Christ and the Oceanview Church of Christ in California. The following weekend, I had the privilege of proclaiming the truth at the Klang Church of Christ in Malaysia. Here are some of the comments. The purpose of listing the comments is to reflect the appreciation from brethren but not to be boasting. We are all unworthy servants to the Lord. All the glory belongs to God.

Many thanks to your effort to put together the lesson on “The Eternal Christ.” The divine attributes of Christ offer a great source to defend Jesus as the eternal God.

Your lesson on “Hope in the Age of Marital Crisis” is very good. You got a lot of thumbs up in the live-streaming.

Thank you brother William for the fine lesson. I have learned something interesting from your presentation of Ephesians 5:33 about love and respect, the different love languages of husband and wife.

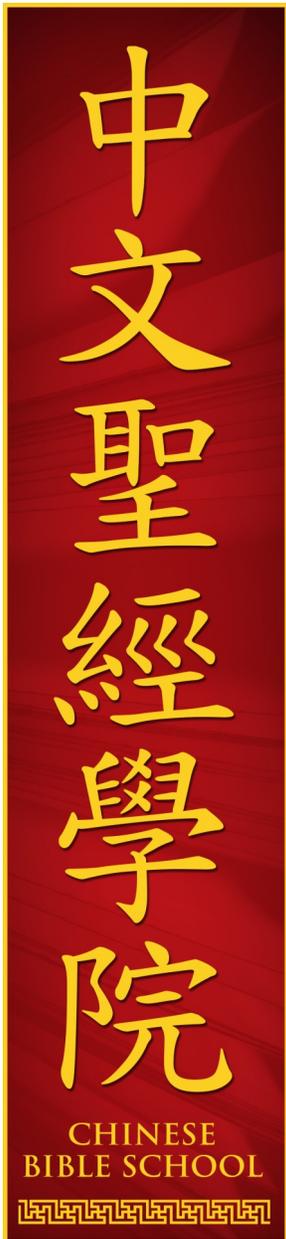

You are a very good Bible class teacher because you are able to explain the text so clearly. We might want to invite you to speak to us each and every year.

Before I left for Southeast Asia, I had completed the translation work for a course on Genesis and begun recording four of the lessons in the studio at the World Video Bible School. Afterwards, I prepared the graphics and did the editing work in both Simplified Chinese and Traditional Chinese. Three lessons were uploaded on the chinesebibleschool.org website so that you might be able to see a sample of the Bible courses that will become available for the Chinese students worldwide.

Thanks be to God our Father for the safe journey so far, and for the interest, encouragement, and support I received about the potential of this new work.

Lord willing, I will return in late June to work on the completion of Genesis. I am also hoping to spend the rest of this year getting much accomplished for the school and the church.

I am forever thankful to the Lord for your interest in this good work for the kingdom among the Chinese people. With the Lord’s help, this work will reach thousands of lost souls. Please continue to keep us in your prayers.
