MONTHLY REPORT—May 2020

Dear brethren, may this letter find you well in this uneasy world. Let the words of God richly dwell in us and comfort us in the current time of troubles.

“Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!” (Psalm 27:14)

“Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices!” (Psalm 37:7)

“but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.” (Isaiah 40:31)

“Do not say, “I will repay evil”; wait for the LORD, and he will deliver you.” (Proverbs 20:22)

The Story of Jesus video lessons are near to the end. In May, we have completed the manuscripts of lessons 52-54. The story came to the crucifixion of our Lord Christ Jesus. When putting all gospel accounts together, we are able to see vividly the scene of crucifixion as we were eye witnesses at the foot of the cross two thousand years ago. The seven sayings on the cross Jesus uttered shows His pain as a human being, and His grace as divine. What a Savior! While manuscripts of lesson 48-54 are in proofreading and review, the video recording of these lessons has been scheduled in mid-July.

Our Tencent QQ online Bible study group continued studying the story of Jesus. The lessons for this month were about the Lord’s Prayers during Passover feast and in the garden of Gethsemane, and the six stages of His trials. The passion of the Lord started at Gethsemane followed by His betrayal, arrest, trials, and crucifixion. All the way, He was under the expense of the hands of lawless men. However, the actions of these evildoers were woven into the marvelous plan of salvation by the wonderful hands of God.

Our videos in the Chinese Bible School website have been used as teaching materials in a few Chinese congregations. Several brothers and sisters in Christ have been sharing the videos in their Facebook. We are not able to evaluate the impact of the videos unless getting the feedback from the viewers. This month, I received a Bible Study request from an individual in Thailand. He is a Chinese from China working at Thailand and has been downloading our videos from YouTube and sharing them to his relatives in China. I was asked to present a Bible lesson in their online family meeting. Per request, an hour lesson titled “The providence of God” was presented to seven attendees, not members of the Lord’s church, through Tencent QQ group audio meeting. This is my hope and prayer that they will continue to search the truth and let the truth set them free. May God continue to open the door through our online Chinese Bible School ministry and personal evangelism that many souls may be found and our God is glorified.
