MONTHLY REPORT—July 2018

In July, we are thankful for the modern technology for us to accomplish the Great Commission and the progress we made for the ongoing series of The Story of Jesus.

Upon completing the mission trip to Malaysia, I embarked on a journey to mainland China from June 11th-25th. With great anticipation, I shared the word of God with four congregations in Wuhan, Beijing, Wuhu, and Shanghai. On this trip, I had the privilege of expounding the scriptures to two congregations that are confused about extreme conservatism and liberalism. The former promoted practices that God has not bound; the latter advocated that “love” should embrace all things including those that God has not loosed. After intensive studying on these subject matters, the brethren gladly received the teachings and were determined to go back to the Bible. In addition, one more soul was baptized into the Lord’s body. I am thankful to Becky Tao for cordially inviting her mother to participate in a three-day Getting to Know Your Bible workshop in Beijing, four hundred miles away from Mrs. Tao’s hometown. On the second day of the workshop, her mother gladly obeyed the gospel.

To meet the needs of those who hunger and thirst for the word of God, I decided to begin conducting an online weekly Bible study via Tencent’s QQ, a social media platform geared toward Chinese audiences in Taiwan, Malaysia, and mainland China. The first series of this Bible study is Getting to Know Your Bible. There are six lessons in this study. On average, forty students have tuned in on Thursday evenings since July 19, 2018. This is my hope and prayer that more Chinese will benefit from the study.

After returning from the overseas mission trip, we resumed working on the post-production of six more lessons for The Story of Jesus. By the end of July, we completed the onscreen graphics and video editing for Jesus’ Early Ministry and Sermon on the Mount. These recordings are in the process of uploading for review before we make them available to the public in early August.

The latest statistics for YouTube viewings of our Chinese videos show there are more than 600 views per day. Please keep this great work in your prayers. Thank you very much!
