MONTHLY REPORT—February 2024

May this newsletter find you well in all things, and may God continue to richly bless you in the year of the Dragon.

We are delighted to announce the completion of production for the topical video lesson titled "The Biblical View of Premillennialism." This 46-minute video offers a comprehensive examination of biblical teachings to refute the widespread false doctrine of Premillennialism. We fervently pray that this informative video will provide biblical clarity to those seeking truth amidst confusion surrounding this specious theory. Please share the following links to the video with those who may find it beneficial:

Our upcoming video lessons on First Thessalonians and Second Thessalonians are scheduled for recording during the week of March 18. I extend heartfelt appreciation to my wife, Yolanda, whose meticulous review of my manuscripts has significantly enhanced the clarity and coherence of the lessons. Her invaluable insights ensure that the content remains concise and easily comprehensible for students. Having a trusted viewer to scrutinize the material before presentation is invaluable and contributes to the longevity of the video lessons.

While reviewing the manuscripts for First and Second Thessalonians, I have been diligently preparing the manuscripts for our next series of video lessons on First Timothy. The manuscripts for the first six lessons have been completed and are also utilized in our weekly online Bible study. I am delighted to share the inspiring story of a new student from China who is earnestly seeking the truth:

A zealous sister in Christ in China initiated a Bible study with a gentle man in his 50s, a neighbor of her hometown, who displayed a sincere desire to learn the Word of God. Initially using principles from the "Fishers of Men" program, she later forwarded several video lessons from the Chinese Bible School to him, including "Where Do We Go When We Die," "Heaven," "Hell," "What Must I Do To Go To Heaven," "Why Are There So Many Churches," and "The Biblical View of Premillennialism." He expressed his gratitude, stating:

Thank you for sending me this wonderful gospel. I was deeply moved by the gospel you sent me, and my life is definitely going to change dramatically. I think I should not struggle for my earthly labors, but for eternal life, and I must be a true Christian and live a holy life. To become a blessed and saved person is my investment, the best investment.

This gentleman is now ready to be baptized, and a preacher from the Singapore Four Seas College Chinese Program is working to meet and baptize him as soon as possible. We give all the glory to God and fervently pray for his swift integration into the body of Christ.

May God's grace continue to guide and strengthen us as we press forward in our mission to spread His Word to all corners of the Earth.
