MONTHLY REPORT—April 2024

May this newsletter find you well amidst the turbulence of our world today.

As we navigate through these challenging times, our prayers ascend to heaven, carrying with them the earnest petitions of our souls. We fervently pray for those embroiled in conflicts across the globe, that the hand of peace may soon descend upon their troubled lands. We also pray for peace to soon prevail amidst the anti-war demonstrations on college campuses. We extend our heartfelt sympathies to the families affected by the recent 7.2 magnitude earthquake in Taiwan and the devastating tornadoes wreaking havoc across many states in the United States. May the Lord's comforting embrace surround them in their time of grief, and may swift recovery and restoration be granted to all those affected.

In the face of such turmoil and chaos, the need for peace has never been more urgent. Let us join together in prayer, seeking the guidance and intervention of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May His peace, which surpasses all understanding, reign in our hearts and in our world, bringing healing, reconciliation, and restoration to all who are in need.

Amidst these challenges, significant progress has been made in the video post-production for the Book of First Thessalonians, with six completed lessons in Traditional Chinese. Our talented video graphic designer, Yolanda, alongside brother Chin Yong from Malaysia, diligently work to create visually engaging scripture graphics. The incorporation of animation ideas from the World Video Bible School further elevates the quality and engagement of our videos. With three more video lessons for First Thessalonians and four lessons for Second Thessalonians in production, we are committed to delivering impactful content to our audience. However, due to the upcoming mission trip (starting from May 28), the remaining postproduction work will be resumed after our return (June 18).

We are also excited to announce the completion of nine lessons of manuscripts for the upcoming video lessons on the Book of First Timothy. These materials are concurrently utilized for our weekly online Bible study, where attendees from Taiwan, China, and Malaysia demonstrate unwavering enthusiasm for the Word of God. Their dedication inspires us, and we earnestly pray for the Lord's abundant blessings upon them.

Our heartfelt gratitude extends to our supporters whose unwavering prayers and financial assistance enable the continued proclamation of the Gospel to over 1.4 billion people in the Chinese-speaking world through internet evangelism.

Thank you for your unwavering support and steadfast commitment to our mission. Together, let us continue to uphold one another in prayer, trusting in the promise of God's faithfulness even in the midst of uncertainty.
