Chinese Bible School Monthly Report — June 2026

Greetings in the Lord!

Thank you for your faithful prayers. After a 26-day mission trip to Asia, we safely returned home to Texas on June 15. Although the journey was long, we are grateful for God's protection and thankful to be home again.

One of the greatest blessings of this trip was reuniting with relatives and brothers and sisters in Christ whom we had not seen for nearly two years. Though our time together was brief, it was a wonderful encouragement as we renewed our fellowship in the Lord.

During the trip, we visited five congregations and one nursing home and participated in the Chinese Asian Bible Lectureship in Malacca, Malaysia. Altogether, I presented fifteen Bible lessons and sermons—nine in bilingual English and Mandarin, four in Mandarin, and one in the Taiwanese dialect. We thank God for these opportunities to share His Word with Christians and seekers from Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia, and China. We pray that the seed of God's Word will continue to bear abundant fruit.

From May 29–31, the Skudai Church of Christ in Malaysia hosted a four-sermon bilingual gospel meeting entitled "Why Is There Suffering in the World?" The lessons covered A World of Suffering, Growth Through Suffering, The Spiritual Battle of Suffering, and Faith in the Midst of Suffering, based on Dave Miller's book Why People Suffer.

We thank God that each session was attended by approximately 50 to 70 people, with more than 20 joining online. Our prayer is that those who attended gained a clearer biblical understanding of suffering and were strengthened to trust God through life's trials.

From June 4–6, I also spoke at the 18th Asian Chinese Bible Lectureship in Malacca. About 160 Christians from seven countries gathered under the theme "Think of the Home Over There."

My assigned topic was "The Error of Premillennialism and the Proper Interpretation of Revelation 20." I was thankful for the opportunity to present a biblical explanation of Revelation 20 and help attendees distinguish scriptural truth from doctrinal error, strengthening their confidence in God's Word.

The lectureship was held at the Noble Hotel, where participants stayed and met together throughout the event. Along with excellent Bible teaching, the fellowship among Christians from many countries was especially encouraging and reminded me of the psalmist's words: "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!" (Psalm 133:1)

Thank you again for your prayers, encouragement, and financial support of the Chinese Bible School. Your partnership enables us to continue producing sound biblical teaching in Chinese and making it freely available to Chinese-speaking people around the world. Please continue praying that God will bless this work and use it to bring many more souls to Christ.

May God richly bless you in your service to Him.
