Chinese Bible School Monthly Report — November

November is a season of thanksgiving for many people in the United States. Just as Chinese families gather during the Lunar New Year to share meals and celebrate, Americans likewise come together during Thanksgiving to enjoy family fellowship and express gratitude.

As in previous years, our daughter-in-law's grandmother graciously invited us to her home in Arkansas to celebrate Thanksgiving together. The day before Thanksgiving, we drove about nine and a half hours to reach her house. The next day, around thirty relatives from different parts of the United States gathered under one roof, sharing a joyful celebration and a wonderful Thanksgiving feast. Our son and daughter-in-law were also present, making the gathering even more delightful and meaningful. It was a time filled with warm greetings, updates on each other's lives, and heartfelt conversations. We are truly grateful to God for blessing us with loving family and in-laws, and for granting us a peaceful and safe journey both ways.

I am also pleased to share with you the ministry progress for November. This month, we finally completed the post-production work for all twenty-eight lessons of the First Corinthians video course. All videos have now been uploaded to the Chinese Bible School website. You are warmly invited to click the links below to watch, and feel free to share them with anyone who may be interested. Thank you!

In addition, our Thursday Zoom Bible study continues steadily. We have now reached Lesson 19, covering chapter 11 of First Corinthians. My plan is to finish teaching up to chapter 13 (Lesson 22) by the end of December. For chapters 14–16, I will encourage the participants to continue learning on our website. Starting in January, we will begin studying Second Corinthians.

The next video course we will be recording is Second Corinthians. At present, we have completed the manuscripts for the first six lessons, covering chapters 1–4. We expect this course to include at least twenty lessons. We sincerely pray for God to continue granting wisdom, strength, and clarity, so that this teaching ministry can help even more people understand His truth.

Thank you, dear brothers and sisters, for your continued prayers, support, and generosity. Your partnership enables this cross-cultural ministry to keep moving forward, bringing the light of the gospel to Chinese-speaking souls around the world. May the Lord remember every labor of love you offer in His kingdom, and may He bless you and your family with peace, grace, and strength from above throughout the coming month.
