MONTHLY REPORT—January 2021

We are grateful for the opportunity to work for the Lord. We understand there will still be a threatening virus and political turbulence on both sides of the world. Our mission in spreading the gospel to more than 1.4 billion Chinese-speaking souls around the world will remain the same in the year 2021. Let us continue to fight the good fight of faith and be not discouraged by the evils of the world.

We are glad that the video lesson The Biblical View of Marriage, Divorce, and Remarriage has been completed and uploaded to the Chinese Bible School website at ChineseBibleSchool.org. You are welcome to share our website to those who may be interested in our work.

The book of Colossians is our next teaching course for video lessons. The goal of these lessons is to present the preeminence of Christ. He is our creator and savior and so worthy to be praised and worshipped. The manuscripts of lesson 1 and 2 have been completed and are in reviewing.

Our Tencent QQ online Bible study group has completed the study of Church History. In January, we studied several denominational churches, including Baptist, Methodist, Mormon, Jehovah's Witnesses and Pentecostals. We also studied the restoration movement and the dividing of the Lord's Church. We presented the principle of the restoration movement, "If anyone speaks, let him speak as the oracles of God" (I Peter 4:11). The take home message for the students was, "In essentials unity; in non-essentials liberty; in all things charity" by Thomas Campbell.

I always recorded the QQ online Bible study lessons and uploaded to the QQ group for those who would like to review lessons or missed the class. The recorded audio lessons were shared by the group members to others, and sometimes good things happened. A brother in the study group wrote me the following message.

...A sister in our congregation left the church due to fornication many years ago. The brethren one time found her and asked her repent but she refused. She had been wondering outside the church for years until she listened to your lesson shared by a member of QQ group. Your lesson really touched her heart and she was willing to repent. We had formed a chatting group online yesterday and she openly confessed her sin to those who knew her sin in the group. Thanks to God, what the work you have done. May God continue to bless you with His grace!

Praise the Lord! Let the love and mercy of God continue to shower upon those who have honest hearts.
