MONTHLY REPORT—November 2022

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, as mentioned last report, I would like to invite you again to continue to pray for the people in China. The Zero-Covid Policy has affected millions of Chinese people who have been locked down in-place on and off the last couple years, leading to protests across the country. Please pray for the nation as a whole that peace will soon be arriving. But most importantly, pray that many will find true peace in Christ.

We are glad that the first eleven video lessons of Genesis have been uploaded to the Chinese Bible School website. Please share the following links with those who may be interested in our work. Thank you.

For Traditional Chinese: <https://chinesebibleschool.org/courses/traditional-genesis/>

For Simplified Chinese: <https://chinesebibleschool.org/courses/simplified-genesis/>

The manuscripts for the last ten lessons of Genesis (Lessons 12-21) covering Chapters 20 to 50 have been completed and are in review. Among them are two more lessons for the story of Abraham followed by one lesson for the life of Isaac, three lessons for the life of Jacob, and four lessons for the life of Joseph. The video recording of these 10 lessons is scheduled for February 2023.

We are pleased to let you know that the homepage of the Chinese Bible School website has a new face. The homepage contains the following school information written both in Traditional Chinese and Simplified Chinese: the philosophy of instruction, the benefit, tuition-free, and how to learn. People can start the course study by clicking the “get started” icon which leads to the page showing each book of the Bible available on the website. Thanks to the IT developer at World Video Bible School for his fine job. Please take a look at the Chinese Bible School’s new home page at <https://chinesebibleschool.org/>. Thank you.

Early this year, both Traditional and Simplified Chinese versions of the Searching for Truth study guide by John Moore were completed and uploaded to the Chinese Bible School website for free download. We are glad that 5000 copies of the printed book Searching for Truth in Simplified Chinese have been made in Malaysia and kept at the Klang church of Christ in Malaysia. We are thankful to brother Eng Boon Ong, one of the elders of the congregation, for his effort in looking for a printing company and negotiating a good deal. He will also help to distribute the book among the Chinese-speaking people in Asia. Especially, in the annual Asian Chinese Bible Lectureship which will be resumed in Malaysia in June 2023. May this book become an effective evangelistic tool to spread the gospel among the Chinese-speaking world. May many souls find the truth because of this book.
